Greetings,

The County of Orangeburg welcomes the Black-Tie Masquerade for the second year to the Orangeburg County Conference Center benefiting Paths to Wholeness, a non-profit, faith based organization dedicated to empowering and leading women down a restorative path.

The Orangeburg County Conference Center is strategically located in downtown Orangeburg near the County's seat. We know that your guests will enjoy the food, music, and fellowship in our state-of-the-art facility.

I would like to share a few things about our great County! The County of Orangeburg is home of the Global Logistics Triangle and centrally located between Columbia and Charleston. We have two water parks-one in Santee (Santee Water Park) and one in Orangeburg (Orangeburg County Aquatic Park). We have many parks for you to enjoy. The Edisto Garden is located in the City of Orangeburg, Indian Bluff in Eutawville, and Santee State Park in Santee to name a few. We also have great restaurants, hotels, and shopping centers. So please, stay, shop, and play in our great County.

Enjoy your night and as always, It's a Great Day in Orangeburg County!

Sincerely,

Harold M. Young
